Move on to task B to write the correct tenses.

Last week, Maria speaks to her colleague, Ana, about going on a grand outdoor camping adventure. She had never being a fan of the outdoors, but this time, she decided to give camping a try. On Friday, she was packed her bags when Ana ring to say they should leave immediately to beat the traffic. As they drove to the campsite, Maria felt extremely anxious about what was awaiting them.

The first night was tough; Maria lay awake, listening to the sounds of nature, unable to sleep. However, by the next morning, something has changed. She woke up early, eager to explore. Maria and Ana hiked through dense forests and climbed steep hills. Maria loves every moment of it!

At work, she can't stop talking about her experience. 'This time next weekend, I'll be put my tent up right in the middle of the forest!' she told her colleagues. 'And by the end of 2025, I'll have finishing climbing the 5 highest peaks in England!' she added. She even managed to convince some of her most reluctant workmates to join her.
